Methodist Conference at Red Deer

Echos from the Alberta Methodist Conference which has been meeting in the town of Red Deer from May 30th until June 8th.

The Rev. A. R. Aldridge, B.A. was elected president, and W. K. Allen, secretary.

First draft of stations for the High River District: High River J. B. Berry; Okotoks, G. G. Weber; Lineham, P. H. Neville; Arrowood, H. J. Ball; Brant, E. Fairweather; Queenstown, J. W. H.; Cleverville, J. Horsley; Cayley, F. Bushfield; Nanton, E. S. Bishop; Parkland, H. D. Ainley; Stavely, G. H. Backus; Claresholm, A. B. Argue; Carmangay, J. W. Coone; Bowville, H. M. Bosomworth.

Rev. Mr. Rundel, Methodist missionary, was the first Protestant minister in Western Canada, having started his work in 1840. Mt. Rundel is called after him, he being the first white man to climb to its summit.

The Rev. Geo. McDougal was sent by the Toronto Conference in 1860.

In 1880 in Alberta there was one district of 20 members, now 15 districts with nearly 200 ministers and probationers and ten thousand six hundred and twenty members.

One college six years old with 465 students in attendance.

Alberta College department of music is the largest to be found in any college west of Toronto.

The first Methodist Conference was held in Alberta in 1903.

EDWARD VII.

How small a part the passing hour plays upon the stage of life may be illustrated by the manner in which we turn aside from its busy moment to whatever engrosses our interest in the next. Three weeks ago all the world was startled by the news that one of the most prominent men of our day had passed away. To-day we look with quiet indifference upon the fact that there is a new King upon the throne of Britain.

But the late King's value will be more fully recognized when the importance of his peace overtures become well understood. India has always been a hotbed in which sedition has found a congenial soil. When India was in ferment it was thought that if the name of India was placed more prominently as an integral part, rather than a dependency, of the empire, it would tend to allay dissatisfaction in the minds of native princes. It was therefore decided to proclaim Victoria, Queen Victoria and Empress of India, etc., but the selfish and vain princes treated the intended compliment with contumely, and stirred their followers to a larger degree of turmoil. The government of the day decided to send the then Prince of Wales on a visit to India. The expedient far surpassed all their expectations. His skilful and successful handling of the dangerous situation was such that from that time on the Prince was marked for a much larger share in the affairs of the government. To his skilful diplomacy was principally due the settlement of the Fashoda troubles which came near embroiling France and England in war. Ever since the time of the Crimea Russia and England had been traditional foes; but again the hand of Edward was tried, and again he was more than successful. His greatest effort was, however, when all Europe turned against Britain at the time of the Boer War and left her in what has been termed a "grand isolation." He turned the isolation into prominence and the threatened war into a lasting peace. "Peace at any price, except that of dishonor," was one of his watchwords, and he fully realized that the building up of the material and moral well-being of his people was a greater work than that of piling their bones upon some battlefield, wasting their property and weakening his country by war could ever be.

When after the Fashoda affair a prominent French statesman declared that he would yet be known as the peacemaker of Europe, he knew his man.

A pupil of Goldwin Smith, a friend and disciple of Gladstone, and the son of Albert the good, he would have been a degenerate if he had failed to imbibe in his earlier years those maxims which made him the most popular man, not only in Britain, but in Europe, and probably America—the greatest diplomat of his time, a manly man, and a kingly King.

Alberta for Christ

From over hill and plain there comes the signal strain

'Tis Alberta, Alberta, Alberta for Christ!

Its music rolls along, the hills take up the song

Of Alberta, Alberta, yes Alberta
for Christ.

CHORUS.

On to victory! On to victory!

Christ, our great Commander, on!
We'll move at His command, and joining heart and hand

Win Alberta, Alberta, yes, Alberta
for Christ.

On, hear, ye brave, the sound that makes our hearts to bound,

'Tis Alberta, Alberta, Alberta for
Christ;

Arise to dare and do, ring out the
watchword true,

Of Alberta, Alberta, yes, Alberta
for Christ.

Come, join our loyal throng, we'll
rout the giant wrong,

Win Alberta, Alberta, Alberta for Christ;

Where Satan's banners float we'll sound the bugle note,

Call Alberta, Alberta, yes, Alberta
for Christ.

Alberta Conference, 1910, Red Deer.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin which places
the total acreage under crop in the province this year 1,582,073,
an increase of 27 per cent. over 1909.

The total membership of the United Farmers of Alberta and Grain Growers' Associations of Saskatchewan and Manitoba is nearly 20,000, and the number is rapidly increasing.

British manufacturers are sending representatives to Canada to timed war scare could possibly be

The peat experiment station at Alfred, Ont., has been so successful that the government is now considering the question of plac-

Saving is a Duty—to Yourself and to Those Depending on You

Every man and woman—whether earning a small weekly wage, or enjoying a large income—should, as a matter of duty, as well as of common sense, lay aside some portion regularly for the future.

If you have not yet learned this valuable habit of saving, commence to-day by opening an account in the BANK OF HAMILTON.

Here the account of the small depositor is welcomed.

Simplicity and convenience characterize the system.

Your Savings will rapidly accumulate—interest being paid at highest current rate of interest; and money may be withdrawn whenever desired.

The snowstorm on Wednesday night was a welcome sight to the farmers in this section. While it will do an immense amount of good, the land still needs more moisture, on account of the long drought. As this is the rainy season, the snowstorm is expected to be only the forerunner, which seems probable, as there is every appearance of "more to follow" in the atmosphere.

NOT
"MAIL ORDER"
Cream Separators

The World's Standard De Laval Cream Separators are not sold in the "mail order" way and therefore not advertised with the big newspaper space and big "word claims" used to sell second and third grade separators in this manner.

Part of the money spent in costly advertising and catalogues to sell inferior separators in the "mail order" way is put into vastly better made machines in the case of De Laval Separators, and part of it into commissions to local agents who look after the setting up of the machine and the instruction of the buyer in its proper use, as well as the prompt supplying of any needed parts for it in the years to come.

That's the difference in the method of sale between the De Laval and most other makes of cream separators, of which the De Laval buyer gets the benefit instead of the newspaper and printer.

If you don't know the nearest De Laval agent to you send for a catalogue and his address.

The Province of Alberta began its fight with the C.P.R. before the highest tribunal in the British Empire, at London on May 31st, and in time we shall know whether $26,000,000 arrears of taxes shall be paid or not by the C.P.R. to the provincial government. This case means much more than appears on the surface, as it will determine whether the C. P. R. must pay taxes to the province for all time to come, and when the extent of their holdings in Alberta are taken into consideration it will be seen that this may mean millions of dollars to this country.

The Provincial Exhibition

The Acre Yield Competition at the Alberta Provincial Exhibition, to be held at Calgary June 30th to July 7th, is a new idea for an exhibition. The following prizes are offered :

Winter Wheat

$100, $50, $25, $15, $10, $5
Spring Wheat

	100, 50, 25, 15, 10, 5
Oats	100, 50, 25, 15, 10, 5
Barley	75, 40, 25, 15, 10, 5
Flax	60, 35, 20, 10, 5

The average amount of grain grown on an acre must be shown, and will be judged 60% for quality, 20% for purity, 15% for quantity, 5% for acreage. The Exhibition Company pays all freight charges on exhibits originating in Alberta. It is not likely that anyone in the province has seen the quantity of grain grown on an acre in a pile by itself, and the reader will realize what a great interest will be taken in a building where probably 50 to 100 such exhibits will be on view from all over the province. Some districts are taking a particular interest in this feature, as in the case of Lloydminster Agricultural Society, who have already secured six exhibits from their district. The other features of the exhibition promise to be of more than ordinary interest, and the excellent music and attractions, low rates and special trains will undoubtedly make the attendance the largest yet. The entries close on the 18th of June.

Parkland and Cayley baseball teams played a very interesting game at Parkland, Saturday last. The score was 4-5 in favor of Parkland. As Cayley was handicapped to a certain extent by not having their regular pitcher. At ninth innings the score was 4-4, and an extra innings was necessary to finish the game.
